BORN DEAD ICONS

interview conducted outside their van on Sat. by TP!
(since they are from Quebec and speak French, this is basically the gist of what they said)

TP: What are your names and stuff?

BDI: We are Philip and Jay. Alex is in the van sleeping.

TP: Was he out pimpin' last night?

BDI: No. He's waxing his dolphin.

TP: What was the story you used to get across the border?

BDI: At first we said we were going to Winnipeg and saving gas by going thru the US, but they didn't believe it because it was Friday night and they knew we were playing a show. So we had our friend Derek from G-7 Welcoming Committee write us up a fake recording contract. He did it in an hour and we can't thank him enough.

TP: People think this is a real fest, but I've been to "Spiderlands Fest" near Toronto and that's mad crazy shit!

BDI: Yeah we want to play there we heard it's really crazy.

TP: When I was there, this band from Quebec called Hypochrist...

BDI: Happy, for sure! One day we will burn the flag of the United States.

TP: You guys live with Yannik from His Hero Is Gone, is it true they didn't play because he was wearing a business shirt and they were ashamed to be seen with him?

BDI: (laughter)

TP: Are there pimps in Montreal?

BDI: Yes there are!

TP: How do you say "pimp" in French?

BDI: "Proxnete". But most people just say "pimp".

TP: So what's up with "tabernak"?

BDI: Tabernak is the French word for fuck. It comes from tabernacle because all the French cuss words are taken from religious words because of the years of the repressive religious state in Quebec.

TP: So I was on St. Catherine street (main strip in Montreal), there was all these strip bars like "Pussy Corps". Admit it guys, you all go these sex clubs and get lap dances!

BDI: No, we don't go there. But you know what, alot of American bands go to strips clubs when they play Montreal.

TP: I want the dirt!

(cont) When the rest of the His Hero guys come up do they go to Pussy Corps and the rest of the strip clubs?

BDI: No because Yannik's the pimp.

TP: So he's the pimp of the anarcho ho's?

BDI: Yeah, they all come up here an he gives them jobs.

We talked about skating and the ramp were building in back of my warehouse where we have shows in Philly. And about how Born Dead Icons have to play. I asked them if they thought Americans were ugly because whenever I go to Quebec I think that everyone there is so much more beautiful. I tried to convince them to come play the Reversal of Man show I'm doing there.

BORN DEAD I CONSIDER YOU!

(They Are MAD CUTE BOYS!)
